LEADERSHIP AWARD

JIM O'DONNELL

Global Head of Investor Sales
and Relationship Management
Citi

Each year, The Ireland Funds proudly recognizes a person of outstanding character and business acumen with the Leslie C. Quick Jr. Leadership Award. We are delighted that the recipient this year is Jim O'Donnell, Managing Director and Global Head of Investor Sales and Relationship Management at Citi Markets and Banking.

In this role, Jim is responsible for client distribution for Equities, Fixed Income, Currencies and Commodities. Jim was appointed to this position in August 2008. Prior to that, he was Co-Head of Global Investor Sales, appointed in November 2007.

For the four years prior, Jim served as Head of Equities, Americas at Citi. He joined the firm in July 1999 as Head of Equities, EMEA. Prior to joining Citi, Jim was President and CEO of HSBC Securities Inc. in New York. He was responsible for all equity, debt, futures and investment banking operations for HSBC in the U.S. and was CEO of HSBC James Capel, HSBC's Global Equity business.

Prior to HSBC, Jim was President and CEO of NatWest Securities in the United States. He held various roles at Drexel Burnham Lambert from 1986 to 1990, including Head of Sales and Trading for International Equities and Co-Head of Global Equity Trading. Jim holds a bachelor's degree in Comparative Religion from Princeton University.

Jim has been a great champion of the Irish American community and of the causes supported by The Ireland Funds.
