

Young Leaders Society Great Britain Membership Form

Join our global network of friends and help us to fund deserving charitable organisations working across diverse communities of Great Britain and on the island of Ireland.

Who are the Young Leaders?

The Young Leaders is a membership network of young professionals dedicated to supporting charitable causes. It operates in chapters across 12 countries and is active in its busy calendar of events. The membership is a significant fundraising source for The Ireland Funds and the charities it supports.

What is The Ireland Funds?

The Ireland Funds is a global charity that raises money for deserving causes in Ireland and around the world.

Who do we support?

The Ireland Funds Great Britain provides funding to organisations supporting communities across Great Britain and on the island of Ireland under the pillars of community development, education, peace and culture.

"Joining the Young Leaders is great way to give back and engage with the Irish community in the UK, especially when so many supported organisations work on the frontline. I have been inspired by stories of how people have come together during this time. The Young Leaders is a fantastic opportunity to meet people and work with the many deserving organisations which IFGB supports."

Padraig O'Connor, Chair of IFGB Young Leaders
